This article describes the procedures and requirements of  (.xn--fiqs8s) domain names. Click on the subject below to open the dropdown for more information.

Registration

For individuals outside of China:

- Applicants need to submit a scan or photo copy of an official document that could prove the identity of the registrant: ID card, passport, driver license, etc. All documents provided as a proof of identity must feature the name of the registrant.
- A signed Letter of Commitment is no longer required!

For companies and organizations outside of China:

- Applicants need to submit a scan or photo copy of their business license / business certificate or an excerpt from the commercial register
- The contact ID (Handle) needs to provide a contact name for the responsible person in the company/organization. A copy of passport or ID is not required.
- A signed Letter of Commitment is no longer required!
- Please send the required documents (identity proof / business license) to cn-audit@rrproxy.net for domain name registrations.

Please pay attention to the correct subject line of the e-mail:

- For new registrations: Register [domain name] documents, e.g. "Register example.cn documents"
- Please provide the document in one of the following formats: .jpg, .png, .gif or .jpeg. (Document size max. 1MB!)

Please note:

- If the documents are not received after 8 days the registration will fail.
- Once a contact is whitelisted, the audit process is still manual
- Once you enter the order in the system, you need to send an email to cn-audit@rrproxy.net to let them know you have done so (you can send one email with a list of the registrations you submitted.
- The domain will then be registered.

Furthermore all applicants must be explicitly informed of the following during the registration process:

- Applicants must provide authentic, accurate and complete documentation
- Applicants must confirm to have read and understood CNNIC's registration rules and policies
- Applicants must adhere to all policies governing the contents of the website(s) under the domain name
- In case the domain name is used for a website where the webserver is located in mainland China, a valid ICP number must be obtained from MIIT and provided to CNNIC through registrar (only available if registrant has an office in China)
- Applicants must accept full responsibility for the suspension of the domain name or any consequences caused by violations of the applicants commitments, and understand that CNNIC and the registrar undertake no responsibility in the event that it needs to interrupt the usage of the domain name.

Registrants from inside China or Hong Kong cannot be accepted.

Transfer

- A .xn--fiqs8s domain transfer must be initiated with a so-called authorisation code, which can be obtained from the current registrar through the owner or Admin-C of the domain.
- Please ensure, that you have a correct authorisation code associated with the domain, before initiating the transfer, otherwise it will fail.
- Ensure that your respective domain does not have a lock-status (REGISTRAR-LOCK or HOLD). This can be seen in the WHOIS. If the domain is locked, then the owner can demand that this be unlocked.
- Initiate the transfer on time and not just shortly before the domain expires.
- Please ensure that the domain is older than 60 days otherwise the transfer will be denied.
- Please note that you need a signed request from the registrant before you initiate the transfer.
